I have read and understand the terms set forth by First Federal Lakewood in regards to my autopay account. I understand that if my pull date falls on a holiday or a non-business day, the funds will be pulled the following business day.

I understand that if sufficient funds are not in the checking/savings account on the date of draw, and my checking/savings account is NOT with First Federal Lakewood, no further attempts will be made until the next authorized draw. There may be a reject fee or insufficient funds fee charged to the loan and my payment will need to be submitted to First Federal Lakewood either by mailing a check, online bill pay or by making said payment at a branch.

I understand that if sufficient funds are not in the checking/savings account on the date of draw, and my checking/savings account is with First Federal Lakewood, 3 additional attempts will be made to pull the funds. If funds are not in the account prior to the 4th attempt, no further attempts will be made and I must submit my payment to First Federal Lakewood either by mailing a check, online bill pay or by making said payment at a branch.

I understand this agreement may be revoked at any time by written notice by either First Federal Lakewood or myself. There may be a fee to terminate this authorization.
